

Songbirds

Phonics

Clare and the Fair

Julia
Donaldson

Oxford
Reading
Tree

Talk together

Ask the child to

- Point to each letter pattern in the box on the back cover and say the sound that it makes in words. Tell the child that each of these letter patterns can make the same sound.
- Look out for these letter patterns in the story and try and remember the sounds they make.

Reading the story

Remember, children learn best when reading is relaxed and enjoyable, so give lots of praise.

- Encourage the child to try to read any words they do not recognise by saying the sounds of each letter pattern separately (e.g. C – l – are), then running the sounds together quickly. If they find it difficult to say the sounds, say the word for them first, then see if they can hear the sounds in the word.
- Explain that it is important when running the sounds in a word together to check to see if it sounds like a real word as some words are less regular (e.g. come). Read these words to the child if they do not recognise them. Point out the letters that make the usual sound in each word (e.g. the c in come). This will help the child to remember these words.

See inside back cover for other activities.

Clare and the Fair

Two Poems

Come to the Fair page 2

Clare! Clare! page 12

Come to the Fair

Come to the fair!
Come to the fair!

Ride in a car.

Ride in a chair.

Down to the ground and
up in the air!

Mums, dads and children
– everyone's there,
flying around with the wind in their hair.

Have a good stare.

Have a good scare!

You might win a fairy.
You might win a bear.

So come to the fair!
Come to the fair!

Clare! Clare!

"Clare, Clare! Look over there!
Who has spilt cornflakes all over the chair?"

Did you do it, Clare?"

"Oh no," said Clare.

"I didn't do it. It was my bear."

"Clare! Clare! Look over there!"

Poor little Mary has jam in her hair!

Did you do it, Clare?"

"Oh no," said Clare.

"I didn't do it. It was my bear."

"Clare! Clare! Look over there!
Jars, tins and packets are everywhere.

Did you do it, Clare?"

"Oh no," said Clare.

"I didn't do it. It was my bear."

"Bear, Bear! Look over there!
Who has been giving the kitten a scare?"

Did you do it, Bear?"

"Oh no," said Bear.

"I didn't do it.

It must have been Clare."

Check comprehension

Ask the child

- What would they like to do at the fair? Why?
- Which poem do they like best?

Check phonics (letter-pattern sounds)

Ask the child to

- Read pages 9, 10 and 11 and find some words which rhyme (scare, bear, fair).
- Identify what sound is the same in all these words? (the end sound air)
- Read pages 16 and 17. Find some more words which contain the long air sound (Clare, there, hair). Point out that there is a common word with an unusual spelling pattern for the air sound.

Example phonic words: fair chair air hair fairy stare scare Clare bear

Context words: are come have everyone's everywhere the their there was