A LITTLE STORY ABOUT
BIG FEELINGS

This morning Wine Wine woke up... feeling a little strange.

Some new feelings had appeared and they had a lot to say.

“Hi Wine Wine, we’re your feelings!”
they all said at once.

Wine Wine tried to hide from the feelings, but it was too much to hide from all of them all at once.

They were all here to come and go,
depending on how Wine Wine felt.

Wine Wine knew that these emotions were a part of us all, so Wine Wine tried not to feel afraid.

Instead Wine Wine sat the feelings down, and decided to get to know them
all a little better.

“Hi there, I’m Sadness”, said the first feeling quietly.

“Hello Sadness” replied Wine Wine
“What do you feel like?”

“I’m heavy and wash over you like the monsoon.

And if you let me get too heavy, I can make you feel low and upset.”

“How can I help you not get too heavy?” asked Wine Wine.

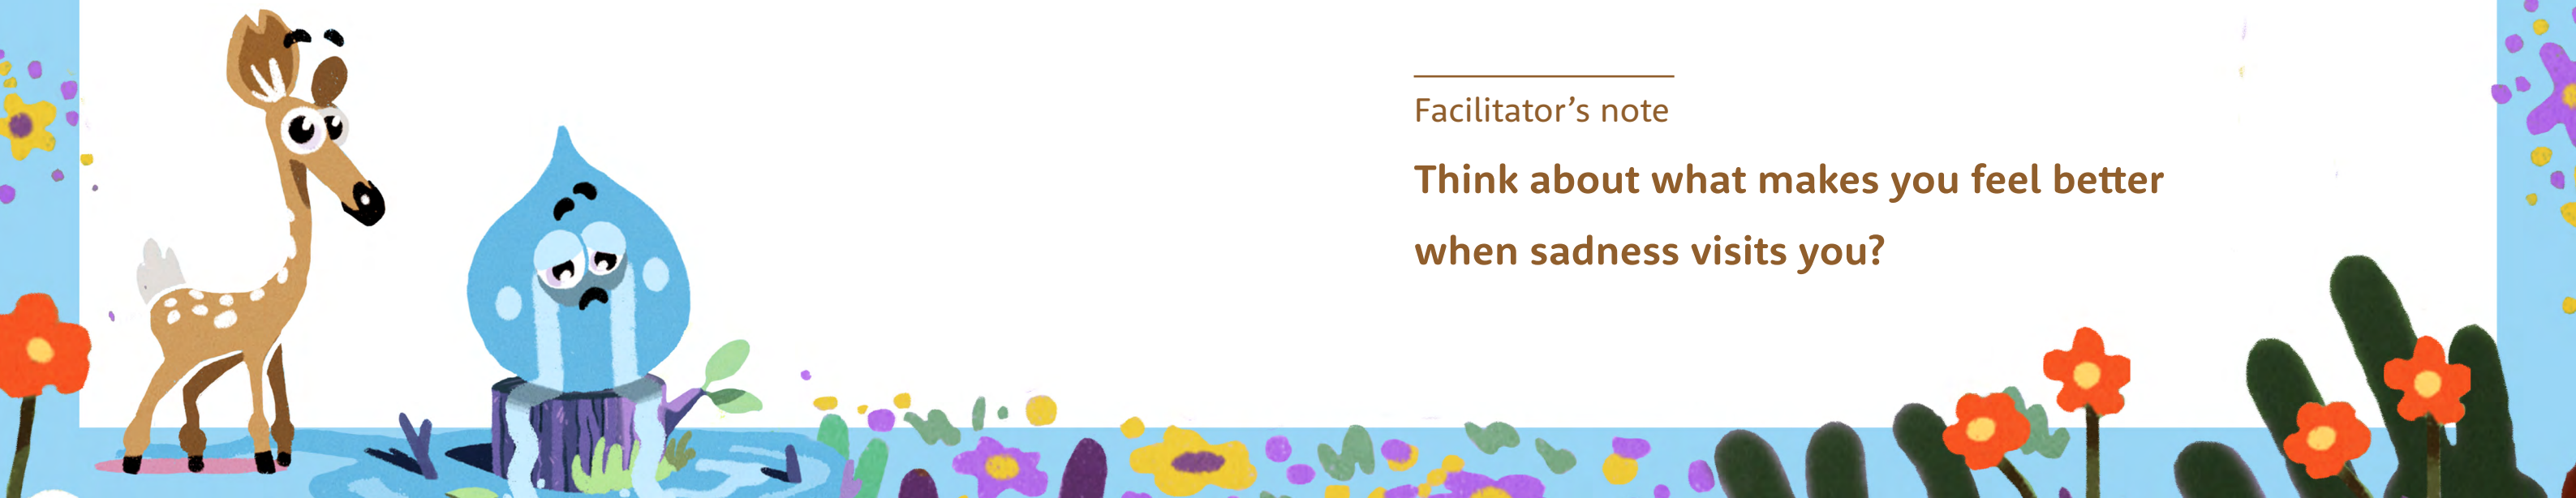

“Well, when I come to visit, you might want to cry. It’s ok to cry, and sometimes you might feel like you want to be alone...But sometimes the best thing you can do is ask for a hug to make yourself feel better”

“I do feel better when I get hugs! And I feel better when I spend time with my family”
Wine Wine replied.

“Yes, spending time with family also helps, Wine Wine. Doing these things can help make me feel smaller and help you feel better”
Sadness whispered.

Think about what makes you feel better when sadness visits you?

“Hi there, I’m Anger!” boomed the next emotion.

“Hello Anger” replied Wine Wine “What do you feel like?”

“I’m fierce and mad! And if you let me get too big, I can make you and others feel bad.”

“How can I help you not get too big?” asked Wine Wine.

“When I come and visit you, you can calm your body and your mind by taking a slow breath in and a slow breath out, over and over again... This will help you feel better and help you feel calm.”

“I can take deep breaths” repeated Wine Wine. “Thanks, Anger.”

And sometimes I like to sit outside, close my eyes ... and listen to the birds,” Wine Wine replied.

“Yes, Wine Wine, that is a good way to make me smaller too!” yelled Anger.

Facilitator’s note

Think about what helps you feel relaxed when anger visits you?

“Hi there, I’m Fear” said the next emotion in a high pitched voice.

“Hello Fear” replied Wine Wine “What do you feel like?”

“I’m small and hide sometimes.

And if you leave me hidden in the corner, I can make it hard for you to feel brave.”

“How can I help you to stop hiding in the corner?” asked Wine Wine.

“When you find me hiding in the corner, you can share this fear with someone who makes you feel safe. This will help you feel better and remind you that you’re not alone”

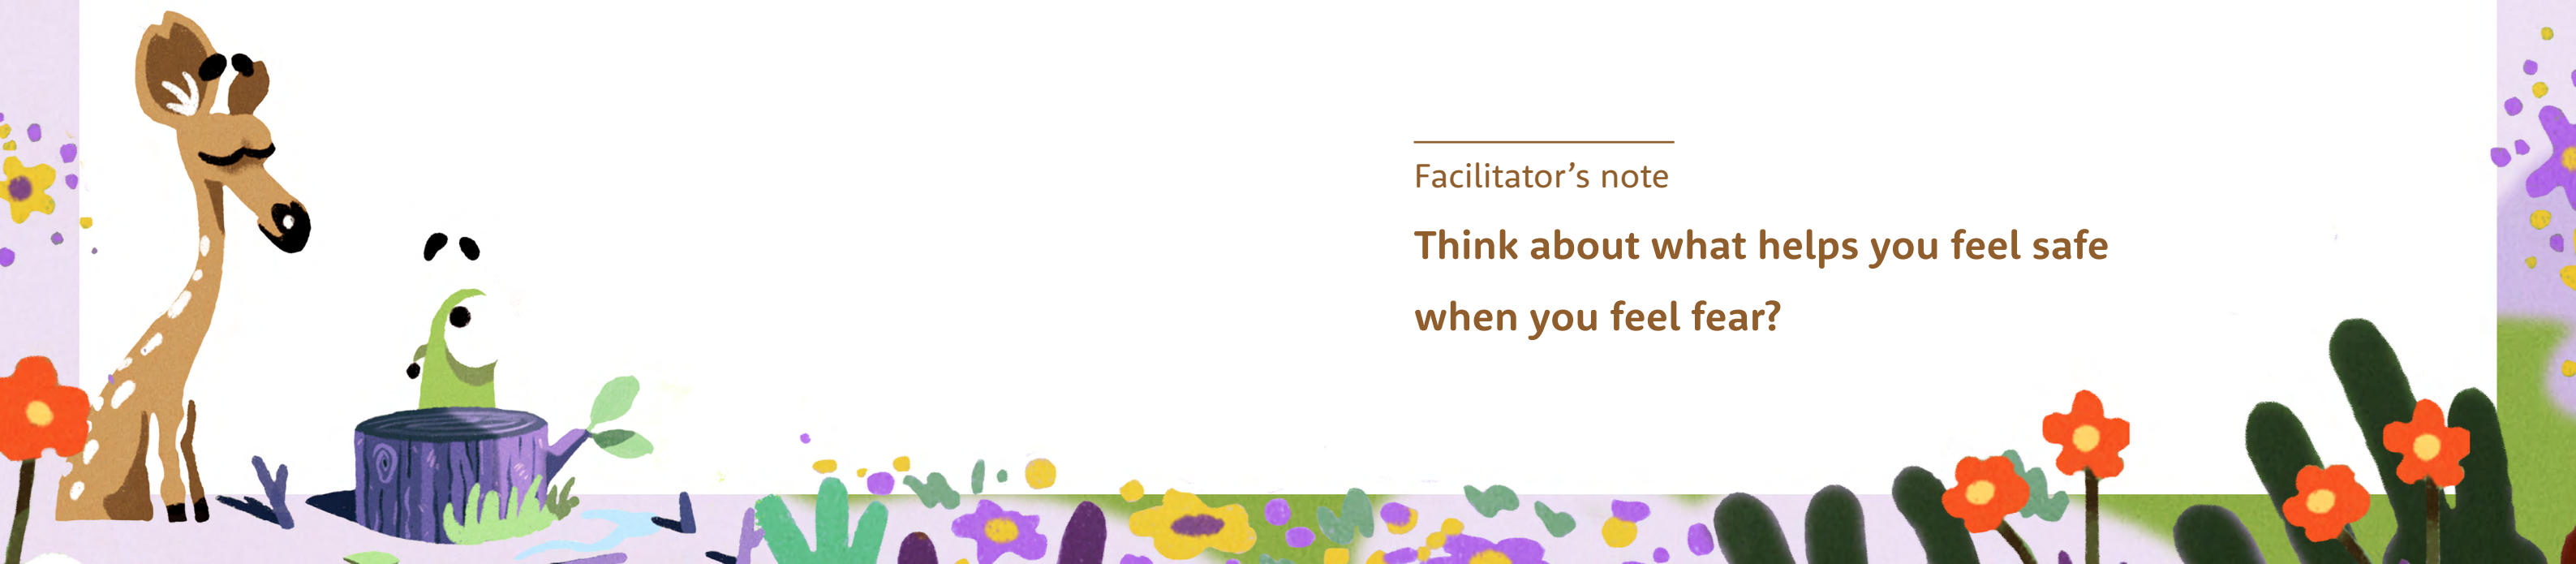

“That’s a good idea, Fear” replied Wine Wine.

“When I am afraid, I also like to draw a picture about what I feel afraid of. It helps me understand my fear better,” Wine Wine replied.

“That's a great example, Wine Wine!” shrieked fear.

Facilitator’s note

Think about what helps you feel safe when you feel fear?

“Hi there, I’m Happiness” said a lovely and smiling emotion.

“Hello Happiness” replied Wine Wine
“What do you feel like?”

I’m bright and light like the sun shining in the sky. And if you let me shine really bright, I can make you and others feel good.”

“How can I help you shine really bright?” asked Wine Wine.

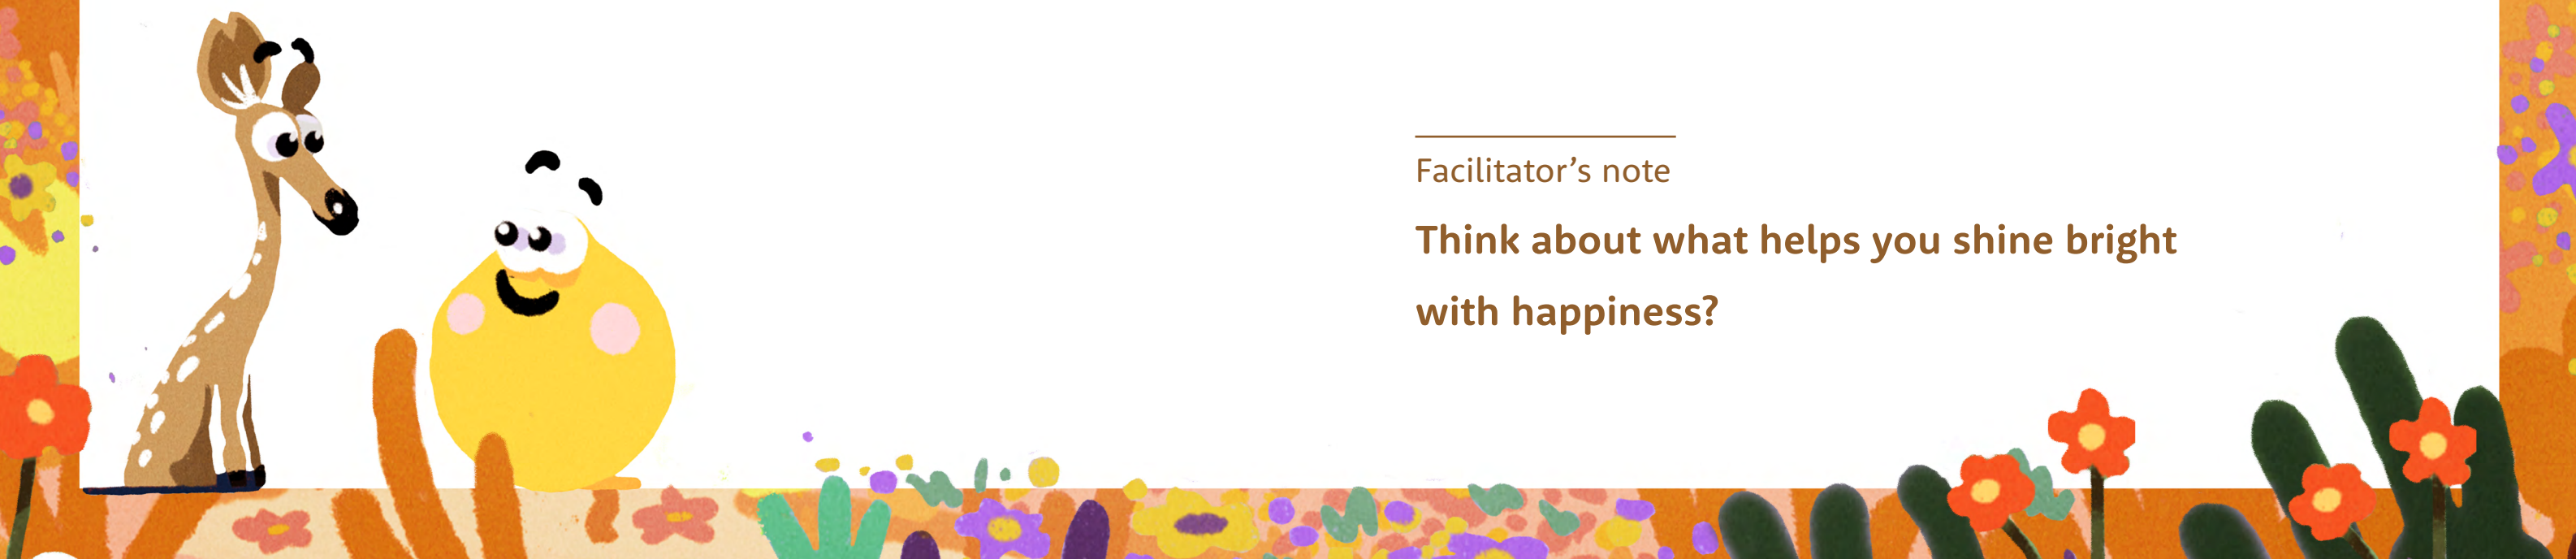

“You can reach me anytime because I am always close by but I especially love to come out when you play, sing and dance with friends and family.”

“I shine bright and feel light with happiness when I hug my mother and father, and when my sister and brother play with me. I also shine bright when I see butterflies and many many other things” replied Wine Wine.

“My shining light is always inside of your heart” sang happiness.

Facilitator’s note

Think about what helps you shine bright with happiness?

Now Wine Wine has listened to all of the feelings inside, instead of pushing them away Wine Wine begins to feel much better.

Sadness, anger, fear and happiness are feelings that everybody has and each feeling is special to one another.

So like Wine Wine did, it's important for you to let them be heard when they visit.

“Can you colour or draw a picture of your feelings now?”

“Can you colour or draw a picture of
your feelings now?”

“Now let’s draw a picture of what or who can help you feel better”

Facilitator’s note

Well done for taking the time to listen to your feelings and their needs today!
