Good gracious! She tripped over the brambles and then bumped her head on the tree-root.

You haven't cut yourself, have you?... No, there isn't any blood. I expect you'll have a jump, that's all.
Little goose!

Please, don't be frightened. We'll take you back to your mother... Can you stand up?

KILIKILIKILI!

O.K. now?

A few minutes later...

Mama!

Miarka!

To think that people live in the midst of all this filth!

I know.

Good day to you!

We found her in the woods; she must have wandered off. When she saw us she...er... she ran away. But then she fell over and bumped her head on a tree root. So we brought her home.

You are a good man. I will tell your fortune. You cross my palm with silver!

No, thanks. Definitely not!

Er... It might be as well, for a clear conscience, to let a doctor have a look at her.

A doctor! I suppose you think we have money to pay for a doctor!

Kind gentleman! I'll tell your fortune... you cross my palm with silver...

No, no! Please leave me alone!

OOOOOH!

What is it?... Tell me!

Poor Professor!... Anything broken?

Yes, a piece several inches long!

That confounded step! Still not repaired! When's that sluggard of a builder coming?

I telephone him constantly, sir, and he assures me he'll come...

Well, I'll show you how to deal with him!

Hello?... Hello? Mr Bolt?... What, that isn't Mr. Bolt?

No, sir, this is Cutts the butcher... Yes, sir, ... Not at all, sir.

CRASH

Hello?... Is that Mr. Bolt?

Yes... oh, yes sir... Yes, I do know... I... Yes, a sudden rush of work... Yes, very tire-some... What? Oh yes, sir, it's very dangerous too... When? ... Well, yes, I... I'll come along... er... tomorrow. Yes, first thing tomorrow... You can rely on me, sir. Good-bye.

That's how to get results, Nestor. Just a touch of firmness, that's all. He'll be here tomorrow, as you heard.

Seeing is believing, sir!

Now for a little drink: the fresh air makes me thirsty!... All well, Tintin?

A letter from Chang in London: he's fine, and sends you his regards.

What a nice lad he is.

Yes, and another letter... You'll never guess who from: Bianca Castafiore!

Hello, there's a storm brewing.

And what has that delightful creature to say?

No, it's passed over.

That she's arriving here at Marlinspike tomorrow!

Excuse me, signora, may I introduce our old friend Professor Calculus.

How enchanting, how absolutely thrilling to meet you; the man who makes all those daring ascents in balloons!

[I am deeply honoured, signora. What a rare pleasure for me to meet so great an artist... an artist of such charm, such distinction, such...]

Professor, you make me blush!

I sincerely hope so, signora. Tintin has often spoken of your pictures... the delicacy of the drawing in perfect harmony with the boldness of the colour. And your portraits, I know, always display an amazing likeness.

Nestor, please show the signora to her room.

Yes, sir.

How kind... But first...er... Irma, where is the...er... the little something for dear Captain Drydock?

In the taxi, madame. I'll fetch it.

I thought... I thought that an old seaman like yourself must feel very lonely in his little boat... Il povero capitano!

They've unloaded the luggage. This is where she's staying... To work, Gino!

Let's see ...

Why, it's Mr. Wagg. Hello!

Hi there, boyo!

Hello-o-o! I can hear you!

I was just passing: a client to see near here for the old Rock Bottom Insurance. So I said to myself: "Jolyon," I said, "now's your chance to say howdy to the ancient mariner." And look what I find: the old humbug's fallen downstairs!

What a scream! Anyway, a bit of luck I popped in. A proper godsend, that's me. This lady was just telling me about last night's caper. And what does Jolyon Wagg discover? ... Hold on to your hats ...

Her jewels, her famous jewels, aren't even insured! What about that? A proper carry-on, eh?

Worth thousands and thousands... She's got one little sparkler, an emerald ... Given to her out East by some character ... Marjorie something or other ...

Maharajah ... The Maharajah of Gopal.

That's the chap. And that little tit-bit alone is worth a fortune. Crazy what you get for a song, eh? Beats me. Not that I've got anything against music, but between you and me, I prefer a dollop of wallop any day.

Not a single jewel covered. So I said: "Lady, you give me a list of your knick-knacks, and Jolyon Wagg will insure the whole shoot!" ...

I'll consider it, Mr. Bag.

Fiddlesticks! ... It's all fixed ... I'll be back in a day or two with a policy. Cheerio for now, Duchess. Pleased to meet you!

... And if I were you, Lord Nelson, I'd get that step fixed.

It had occurred to me! I'm waiting for the builder.

Ah, my beauty past compare Is that me? Oh, how horrible!

At historic Marlinspike Hall, the prima donna was the victim of a daring robbery. A magnificent emerald vanished... mysteriously!

Today a Scanorama reporter went down to Marlinspike and spoke to the officers in charge of the case. Over to Thompson and Thomson...

No, our lips are sealed. We can't tell you whom we suspect, but it isn't anyone in the house. Mum's the word, you know.

Yes, dumb's the word, that's our motto. So we're not allowed to tell you about the gipsies, though we suspected them from the start...

Especially after they cleft their lamp...er... left their camp, the morning after the robbery. But we soon ran them to earth, and then when we searched their caravans we made a startling discovery!

Not only did we discover a pair of scissors belonging to Signora Castafiore's maid, but in one of their caravans...

... we found a messed-up Flunkey ... er... a dressed-up monkey. Obviously, the emerald could only have been stolen by a man climbing the wall: in fact, a man of remarkable agility... And that man has been found: the monkey! Of course the whole bunch...

... denied it furiously. The scissors had been 'found' by a little girl. As for the monkey, he'd never been out of his cage.

So that's how things stand... but we're keeping it under our hats, of course. All we have to do now is recover the emerald...

And for a couple of master-minds like you, gentlemen, that will be child's play... Thank you for putting us so clearly in the picture.

Nightingale with a Broken Heart

MILAN, TUESDAY

'Triumph ... superlative ... sublime ... unforgettable,' proclaims the Italian press. At La Scala last night the divine Castafiore bid farewell to Europe. An ecstatic audience acclaimed her overwhelming performance in Rossini's LA GAZZA LADRA.

Time and again a delirious house recalled their idol. Fifteen curtains! Bravo! Bravissimo! But can the plaudits of admirers mend a broken heart? For the nightingale still mourns the loss of her most precious jewel.

And have we heard the last of the Castafiore emerald? Not so. Police investigations continue in the Marlinspike area. Was a monkey used to spirit away the jewel, magnificent gift of the Maharajah of Gopal? No comment, say detectives, but suspicion weighs heavily upon local gipsies. And still no sign of the emerald.

From Italy, the Milanese nightingale wings her way tonight
